

MILITARY DEFERMENT: Post Demobilization

Federal Perkins disbursements are eligible for this type of military deferment. Principal and interest do not accrue during the period of deferment. To determine if your loan is eligible for a military post demobilization deferment, please refer to the student loan eligibility guide.

Military post demobilization deferments are granted for 13 months or until you re-enroll (which ever comes first).

Eligibility

The deferment follows the conclusion of military service (state or federal) for only the below mentioned armed forces members who were enrolled in program of instruction at eligible institution at time, or within 6 months prior to time borrower was called to active duty as of October 1, 2007:

- 1.) Active duty national guard
- 2.) Retired armed forces
- 3.) Armed forces reserve
- 4.) Still active students

Additionally, to qualify for a military post demobilization deferment, your loan account must be paid to the start of the deferment period.

Grace Period

Following a military post demobilization deferment, you will receive an additional six-month grace period. Principal and interest will not accrue during the post deferment grace period.

Applying for a Military Post Demobilization Deferment:

- 1.) The borrower must submit a copy of the military orders to the following address:
Office of Student Loans and Scholarships
108 Shields Building
University Park, PA 16802

What are my options if my loan is not eligible for a Military deferment?

If your loan is not eligible for a military deferment and you are unable to meet your scheduled payments, you may apply for an economic hardship deferment or forbearance.
